 1.1. Categories of Users
 1.1.1. Women and Children

* Dr Jovan Jovanović is assistant professor at the University in Belgrade. E-mail: jovan@primer.net

4. Authors should use the Harvard Citation Style. The quotation should be followed by the reference in the brackets containing author's surname, the year of publication and the page number.

Example: (Stevanović, 2009: 152).

If there are two or three authors, the surnames should be divided with a comma (example: Knežić, Savić, 2012).

If there are more than three authors, there should be only first author's surname followed by the "et. al" (example: Hawley i dr., 2013).

If two authors have the same surname, name initials should also be included (example: I. Stevanović, Z. Stevanović, 2015).

When referencing a secondary source, the reference should include "according to" (example: Ćopić according to Nikolić-Ristanović, 2011).

If a single reference contains several books or papers, they should be separated with a point comma. (example: Hannah-Moffat, 2005; Kemshall, 2002). In this case surnames of different authors should be in alphabetical order.

4.1. Footnotes should include only following comments, articles of laws and official gazettes.

4.2. Foreign names should be written with original spelling.

5. If the paper includes images or charts, they should also be referenced. For example (Chart 2).

Captions should be written above the images or charts.

Example: Chart 1. Gender structure of victimisation

6. It is obligatory to supply a list of references or bibliography at the end of the paper. It should include all the quoted references in the alphabetical order of surnames. An integral element of a bibliographic item is the DOI (Digital object identifier) number, for those references that are accompanied with this identifier. Doi number must be added at the end of the source. A bibliography unit should include:

For books: author's surname, the name initial, the year of publication in the brackets, the title of the book (in italics), the location of publishing, the name of the publisher.
